VI. Reſolved, That the following Letter be ſent to the ſeveral Gentlemen, who repreſent this County and its Boroughs in Parliament.

SIR,

AT a Meeting of the Delegates and Committee of the Proteſtant Diſſenters for the County of Northampton, held this Day, William Hanbury, Eſq. in the Chair, to conſider the Propriety of the intended Application to the Houſe of Commons for a Repeal of the Teſt Acts; it was thought perfectly reſpectful to acquaint you, they are unanimouſly of Opinion, that an Application is proper and conſtitutional—They therefore take the Liberty of expreſſing their wiſh, it may ſuit your Convenience to be preſent in the Houſe when a Motion to that Purport is made; and they ſincerely hope the Arguments urged on the Occaſion will be ſuch, as may induce you to vote in favour of it: You will do them an Honour by acknowledging the Receipt of this. With great Reſpect, I am, in Behalf of the Chairman and Meeting,

SIR,

Your moſt obedient,

Northampton,
4th Feb. 1790.

humble Servant,

JAMES HARDY, Secretary.
